When we understand our planetary placements, we understand ourselves...

& When we understand ourselves, we begin to understand humanity in relationship to The Earth...
& The Earth to our Solar System, and our Solar System to our Universe & Multiverse!

Esoteric Rule of Thumb:

The Self.

Much like the PIXAR fim,
“Inside Out”,
Our Natal Placements
(planets etc.) mirror the Individual “parts” of one-self,
they are Persona-like Teachers,
that exist within the larger
“system” of personhood.
This mirrors how individual planets are themselves individual parts of a larger solar system, which is itself part of a Galaxy,
which is One Part of the Universe, which is One of the Universes in The Multiverse.

Where & How does Saturn fit into The Astrology of a Natal Chart?
Well, Saturn is a planet; a Persona-like Teacher or “Professor”,
Leading a “class” inside a House or “Classroom” within your Chart.

Saturn in Mythology & The Helenistic Tradition

Saturn is Cronus/Kronos/Time, the Exoteric & Esoteric Ruler of Capricorn & Hierarchical Ruler of Libra, It's the 10th sign of the Zodiac & Associated with the 10th House: Adulthood, Maturity, Authority, Leadership. Holiday: Saturnalia in mid-late December. Symbols: The Scythe-Sickle (both words are related to the word: Cycle), & Hourglass of Time. These symbols convey Saturn's role as the divider or "Reaper" of Seasons (aka Segmented Time) & Being a Finite Container of the Infinite.

SATURN as the Traditional Wetstern (Hellenistic & Greco-Roman) Archetypal Teacher

“Father Time”

Saturn (as “Father Time”) A Quote from The Old Commentary & Esoteric Astrology, from the MAKARA Website: That connects to the Hellenistic concept of Saturn. -- “The Bear and the Lion met together and laid their plans in conformity with the plan, and with the purpose of their controlling Lord -- They called on Father Time (Saturn) for aid and strength, and he responded to their triple call.* To this call, likewise, the Eternal Youth responded (Sanat Kumara, Lord of Shamballa); He set Himself anew - to learn the plan, aided by Father Time, *and yet unaffected by the Lord of Time, for He Himself was timeless, though not the Lives which He enfolded, in His thought and Plan. ...” (Esoteric Astrology 430-431)

Saturn was/is: The God of Time, the cycles of generation & dissolution, and responsibility. “He” was initially associated with wealth and abundance (as much as with restrictions or limits), because Saturn/ Kronos was first and foremost a God of Agriculture. As Ruler of the "Cycle of Seasonal Time." He was associated with the process of periodic renewal: (or harvest reaping - thus the scythe or sickle/cycle, as well as Karma reaping and sewing... and the literal and metaphorical (or material & metaphysical) wisdom gained from understanding these repeating cycles. In this sense the “Time & Karma” lessons we associate with Saturn seem to be less punitive and more educational in nature, and related more to the comprehension & understanding of the perpetual cycle of birth, death, and rebirth. In this early understanding the characteristic of Saturn differ greatly from the now (traditional) binary of being a so called "malefic" vs “benefic, or even ”male/female” (more on that later), "and more as a neutral if nuanced entity, one that represented cycles of life. Some of those cycles (as in death) can be "scary" or intimidating, but not inherently "evil" or “malefic”

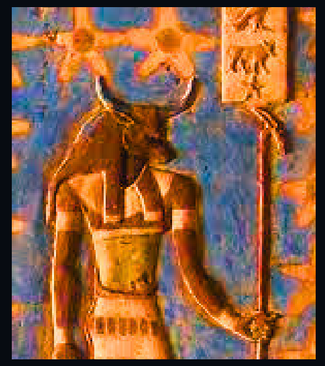

Now, as a Titan, Saturn’s "origin story" (which itself comes from a much earlier Proto-Indo-Euuropean mythology known generally as "The Great Hunt"), we learn one of the most infamous myths about Saturn/Kronos -- the whole “I ate my kids situation." Log line: In a world where, Greek fables describe the Big Bang: The Creator of ALL, Gaia gave birth the Universe, including a son - Uranus, who then went on to kids with his Mom, proceed to get jealous of those kids... So, Uranus’s son Saturn castrated his Dad with a scythe, and then Uranus ate him (along with his siblings.) Upon release from his Dad’s "stomach", Saturn determined never to repeat this cycle again.. Until, ironically, he did the exact same thing , devouring his own offspring. (Cue Justin Timberlake’s: What goes around, goes around, goes around, comes all the way, back around.)

“A New Spin”/Theory: perhaps the mythology of Saturn/Kronos devouring his kids, has its foundation or "roots" in literal planetary history... An ancient collective memory from our earliest hominid days, when our species in its infancy, witnessed Saturn devouring its Moons, and the left over debris spewing out until it recollected into the icy Rings that exist today.* I suggest this, as new astronomical models suggest the Saturn’s rings formed long after the planetary body formed. In fact, recent mathematical models suggest that the rings formed at earliest near the dinasours, and possibly as late as when our early hominids ancestors were roaming the Earth.*

So rather than only seeing the “Saturn ate his kids story” only through a lens of ”an abusive Father perpetually repeats a cycle of abuse”, we might also understand it as a literal Planetary/Cautionary tale -- one that cautions against what happens when parents (Saturn) are out of alignment with their children (Moons.) This understanding also resonates on an individual human level: as well warning us about what can happen when alignment becomes misalignment between our Soul’s sense of Self and our Egoic Sense of Self, or when we humans are out of alignment with our maturity and youth cycle, and what happens when we humans are out of alignment with the Earth.

SATURN
Trickster Diety of Time: Multi-Cultural Mythology

There are striking similarities between various cultural cosmologies and their interpretation of the planet, Diety, and “Being” that is Saturn: the 6th day of the week Saturday (Latin Saturni) was named for Saturn and is named for Saturn in many cultures, languages. Saturn is almost always depicted as a Spirit or Diety with Horns, or carrying a Staff or other farming & harvest instrument (like a scythe.) Saturn is consistently associated with having a relationship with time, cycles in nature, of life and death, of youth into maturity, and accepting responsibility -- but is also associated with being the counter balance to the Sun, particularly in maters of justice and law (in human life and nature) as in the Yoruba tradition where Saturn is known as Obaluaye. Here, Saturn is the spirit of the Earth or the “King” of the Earth” and functions almost like a Guide or “Star”of the Sun: looking over Earth’s maturation process. This “looking out for Earth” role, is a concept (and term) found in early Babylonian texts. In the Yoruba tradition, the Sun. Orunmila is “the father of Ifa” or “the witness of the formation of the universe”, and Obaluaye (Saturn) is “the Master of Cleaning” - a God or Oshira spirit of healing and attending infirmities and clearing infectious diseases. (The God who doees the “messy work.” This Master Clearer role is also shared in both China and Japan where Saturn is referred to as the “Earth Star”, a major deity who works as a type of “exorcist,” breaking up and clearing out bad energy -- perhaps clearing out debris it “exorcized” like its moons? Asome cultures concieve of Saturn as an Animal Spirit, but many cultures anthropomorphize Saturn into a male human, a serious or stern father-figure. But not all. In the earliest human traditions Saturn is an elder wise woman -- the shamanic Crone!

The Morrigon,: Madcha, Badb, & Nemain

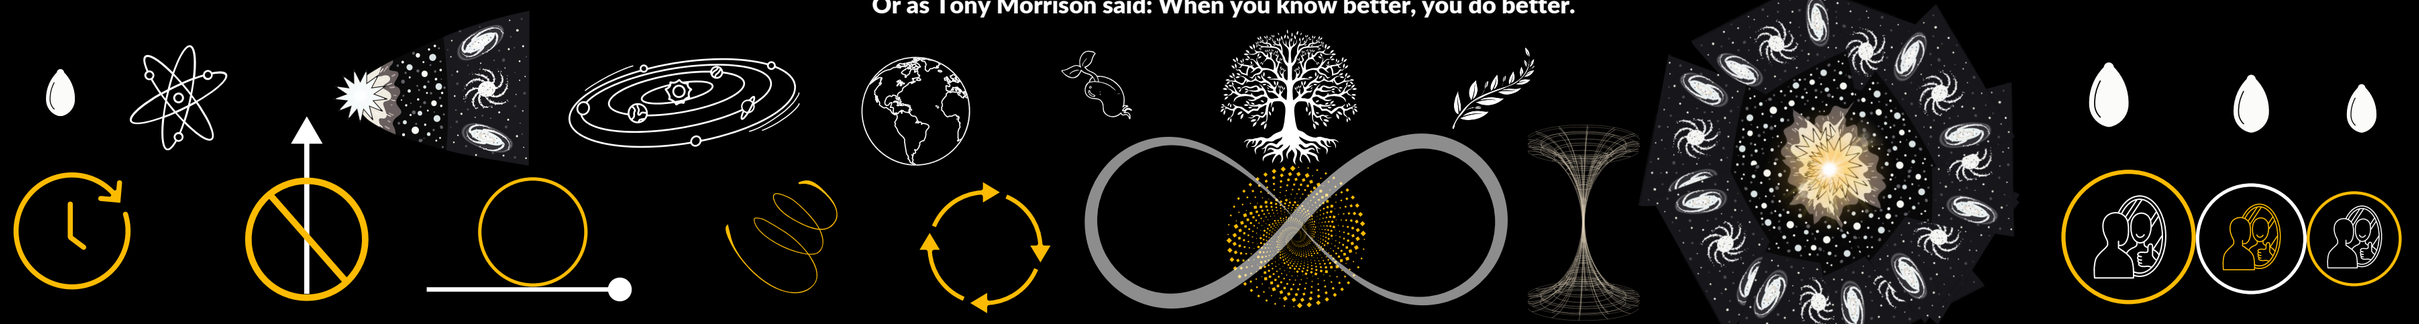

Time, the Triple Goddess Archetype: Maiden, Mother, Crone, & Self-Regeneration

Since time is limited (Saturnian pun), I will briefly touch upon this topic, as it is often overlooked but has significance in our conversation about Saturn.

With a few exceptions like the anicent Greek, Hellenstic Astrologer (Dorotheus of Sidon), who insisted Saturn was female, the feminine aspect os Saturn oft goes unackowledged, but the Archetype of Time as a Goddess is as ancient as it gets and pre-dates all of the archetypes shown on the previous slides. This concept is connected to the earliest known human understanding of the stages of life life developing, as well as the cycle of birth, death, and rebirth. It also connects us to "Mother Nature's" ability for Fractal sequencing and the rather astonishing act of self-regeneration by single celled and more complex mammals, that can impregnate themselves.It connects us to well the earliest concept of a "Holy trinity" or "Three as One" via a female form. So rather than the "Father, Son and Holy Spirit (which does not mirror the fractal nature of Nature), it segments (pr Saturn-izes) time cycles in terms of human life cycles, harvesting cycles, and the nature of segments (or cycles) of space-time itself. The Great Mother of the Universe is one being in three - generational and generating forms: Maiden - youth & fertility (Moon), Mother- maturity & reproduction, responsibility (Sun), and finally the Crone (Saturn), where Wisdom is obtained, and is the final cycle before death, and then another cycle of rebirth begins. The earliest creation stories that remain (or have not been replaced by patriarchal re-telling, all understood The Great Creator as a Mother in part of a larger cycle (usually a three part cycle), who literally gives birth (or the big bang) to the Universe as a "Cosmic Egg". That egg then "gives" birth together small versions of herself (Galaxies), which give birth to still small versions of herself (the Solar System), which give birth to other beings (themselves tiny universes in the corm of "cosmic" maternal eggs. In this pattern, the Sun is an itself an "egg" from which is child and the mother (eggs within eggs within eggs) are generated. This is actually something modern science has proven to be true and is pervasive within nature including human beings. All embryos start as "female" and contain with in them every cell & "instructions" needed to create any other human cell (male or female). To add to this, every woman (maiden) alive today had her "eggs" created in the eggs of her mother ,when her mother was an egg inside her own mother (Crone)-- this pattern repeats in three generation cycles. Father's are of course hugely important in the cosmic cycle, carrying mini eggs with tales (aka sperm) which shout to the big egg "let's start a big bang together and split our DNA"! But - as sperm is produced daily rather than generationally, understanding Time (or the Universe, or Solar System or even Sun itself) as being defined archetypally as exclusively" Male/ Father: is not only scientifically inaccurate, it does not align with a cosmic-fractal-spiritual nature of the Universe. I am aware, that this concept (both scientific and spiritual) may seem revolutionary to some (even even in Esoteric circles), but if a core pillar of Esotericism is that the nature of the Universe is Fractal, then understanding and incorporating the female aspect of time in segmented infinity (eggs within eggs within eggs) of our universe, solar system, sun, and selves will be essential. On a personal level, I tend towards a non-binary understanding of nature in its totality, but recognize the long overude need to acknowledge the "female" aspects of Saturn, time and the Universe itself. Besides, as conveyed by DK in his "Extract from a Statement by the Tibetan Maste;"Human and Solar"; In these days of the shattering of old form a nd the building of the new, adaptability is needed. We must avert the danger of crystallisation, through pliability and expansion. The "old order changeth", but primarily it is a change of dimension and aspect, and not of material or of foundation. The fundamentals have always been true. To each generation is given the part of conserving the essential features of the old and beloved form, but also of wisely expanding and enriching it. Each cycle must add the gain of further research and scientific endeavour, and subtract that which is worn out and of no value. Each age must build in the product and triumphs of its period, and abstract the accretions of the past that would dim and blur the outline. Above all, to each generation is given the joy of demonstrating the strength of the old foundations, and the opportunity to build upon these foundations a structure that will meet the needs of the inner evolving life.

Or as Tony Morrison said: When you know better, you do better.

Saturn: Teacher to Earth as a Literal Planetary Body!

Saturn is the 6th planet from the Sun, orbiting between Jupiter & Uranus

It has 146 Moons & it takes roughly 27-30 years to travel around the Zodiacal Wheel. It spends roughly 2.5 years in a sign. One day on Saturn goes by in just 10.7 hours. One year on Saturn is the same as 29 Earth years. It is not the only planet to have rings, but none are as spectacular or as complex as Saturn's.

Like fellow gas giant Jupiter, Saturn is a massive ball made mostly of hydrogen and helium. It is the farthest planet from Earth discovered by the unaided human eye, (which goes to explain some of the similarities we see archetypally between Saturn and Pluto.) Saturn the Planet: Looking out for Earth (Just Like Jupiter but with less credit) Like Parents with a Good Cop/Bad Cop Reputation, Or the Fun one and the One who says No (which is equally loving in the long run, or over Time... Guess who the “Mean on” is? Saturn.

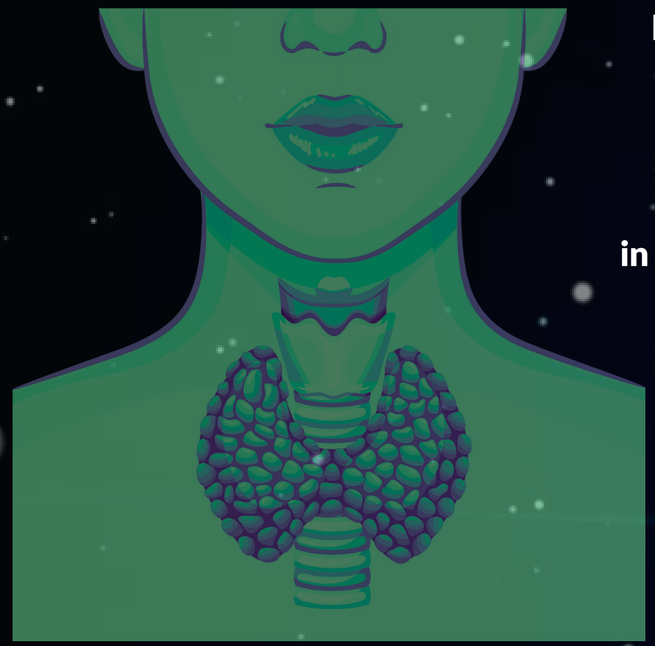

Saturn's gravitational pull helps to deflect and capture asteroids and comets that could potentially impact Earth, a phenomenon called the "gravitational slingshot effect". Simulations suggest that small bodies like asteroids and comets between Jupiter and Saturn will likely be ejected. However, the presence of gas giants like Saturn and Jupiter only provides some level of protection, and the risk of asteroid impacts can't be completely eliminated. Astronomers and space exploration efforts continue to monitor and identify near-Earth objects to reduce the risk of impact

Saturn's magnetosphere also helps protect Earth from the Sun's magnetic forces outside of the planet's protective bubble. Earth's magnetic field creates a smaller magnetosphere that protects the planet from harmful particles from the Sun and other space phenomena Saturn also “teaches,” protects, and assists the Earth via ...

The 3rd RAY of Active intelligence.

Third Ray of Active Intelligence

Ray Three: Active Intelligence and Adaptability

“Activity and intelligence work out from this source, a result of purpose and wisdom.
It is the energy of full and great manipulations, creativity and adaptability.
Needs are recognized through this force, plans are formulated.”

“Material is selected and business is undertaken.
The third ray is clear, inherent mental, and intellectual ideation, in pursuit of truth, with the objective of manifesting - in matter and substance.
It is the power which evokes form.“

“Active Intelligence. Adaptability. Creativity.
Business acumen. Extremely practical.
Manipulative, Gamesmanship.
Philosopher, theorist.
Emphasis on abstract ideas.”

The Esoteric Soul Phrase(s) of Saturn

Esoteric Soul Phrase Evoking Saturn

Capricorn:

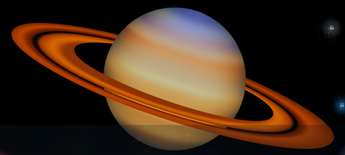

Lost am I in the Light Supernal, yet on that Light, I turn my back

*My Translation: Having achieved the full maturity of this cycle,
I am surrounded by the Cosmic Light (and could leave it),
YET,
Rather than leaving the material plane, focused on completing and accomplishing for myself, alone,
I RE-TURN back to the material realm to help other reach their soul-centered summits.*

Cancer & Capricorn: Working with the 3rd Ray, together!

Lost am I in the LIGHT SUPERNAL, Yet on that light I RETURN to EARTH
And Build a Home; a LIGHTED HOUSE
Where Divine Enlightenment is offered to all who seek shelter and sanctuary.

Saturn with Capricorn & Cancer!

Saturn—the God of Opportunity:

“When the disciple knows Saturn as the God who offers opportunity and does not only feel (him/her/them) to be Deity who brings disaster, then (he/she/they) is on the path of discipleship in truth and in deed, and not just theoretically.”

(Esoteric Astrology, 285)

Saturn with Capricorn & Libra!

Saturn—the Planet of Choice:

“This is the planet which conditions -primarily the point in evolution- where choice definitely becomes possible, where rejection of opportunity or its acceptance, can consciously be undertaken, and the shouldering of personal responsibility becomes a recognized fact in a planned and ordered life.

(Esoteric Astrology, 19-20)

Saturn with Capricorn & Cancer & Libra!

Saturn—the Planet of Discipleship and Opportunity:

“Saturn is the planet of discipleship and of opportunity; it is exceedingly active today, presenting to the world disciple - those difficult situations and crises which will involve: free choice, discriminative pioneering, wise response and correct decision - thus bringing about the destruction of that which hinders, without relinquishing any of the true values of which humanity may be aware.

The individual disciple has always been faced with these conditioning and releasing circumstances, and today humanity is in the same position... Saturn having offered opportunity and proffered us a choice to bring about the needed changes and to destroy that which holds back the free expression of the soul ...”

(Esoteric Astrology, 148-149)

Established Maturity & Youthful Freedom
can only be found by existing in the presenct.

Saturn like Pluto, helps us empower ourselves by facing fears, tests, and overcoming intimidating obstacles.
It teaches us to face things
we might want to avoid,
By dealing with fears and challenges directly
we realize, Saturn (like Pluto), is an ally,
Just like the “Old Man” in Home Alone,
He is first percieved as a threat,
but is actually an ally to the child and essential to the child’s maturation process.

Groundhog Day: Saturn teaching via Capricorn & Libra (Karma & Choice, Surrendering & Empowerment)

Saturn in Relation to Choice:

“In this sign, Saturn is exalted, for—at the point of balance—opportunity comes,
and a situation is staged, which makes a choice and a determination inevitable.
It is a choice which has to be made intelligently and upon the physical plane, in the waking brain consciousness.” (From Esoteric Astrology, 249)

Saturn—a Potent Lord of Karma:

“Saturn is one of the most potent of the Four Lords of Karma and forces man (us/all/people) to face up to the past, and in the present - to prepare for the future.” (From Esoteric Astrology, 164)

Saturn teaching via Capricorn, Cancer & Libra: Groundhog Day, Big, & Home Alone (Coming of Age)

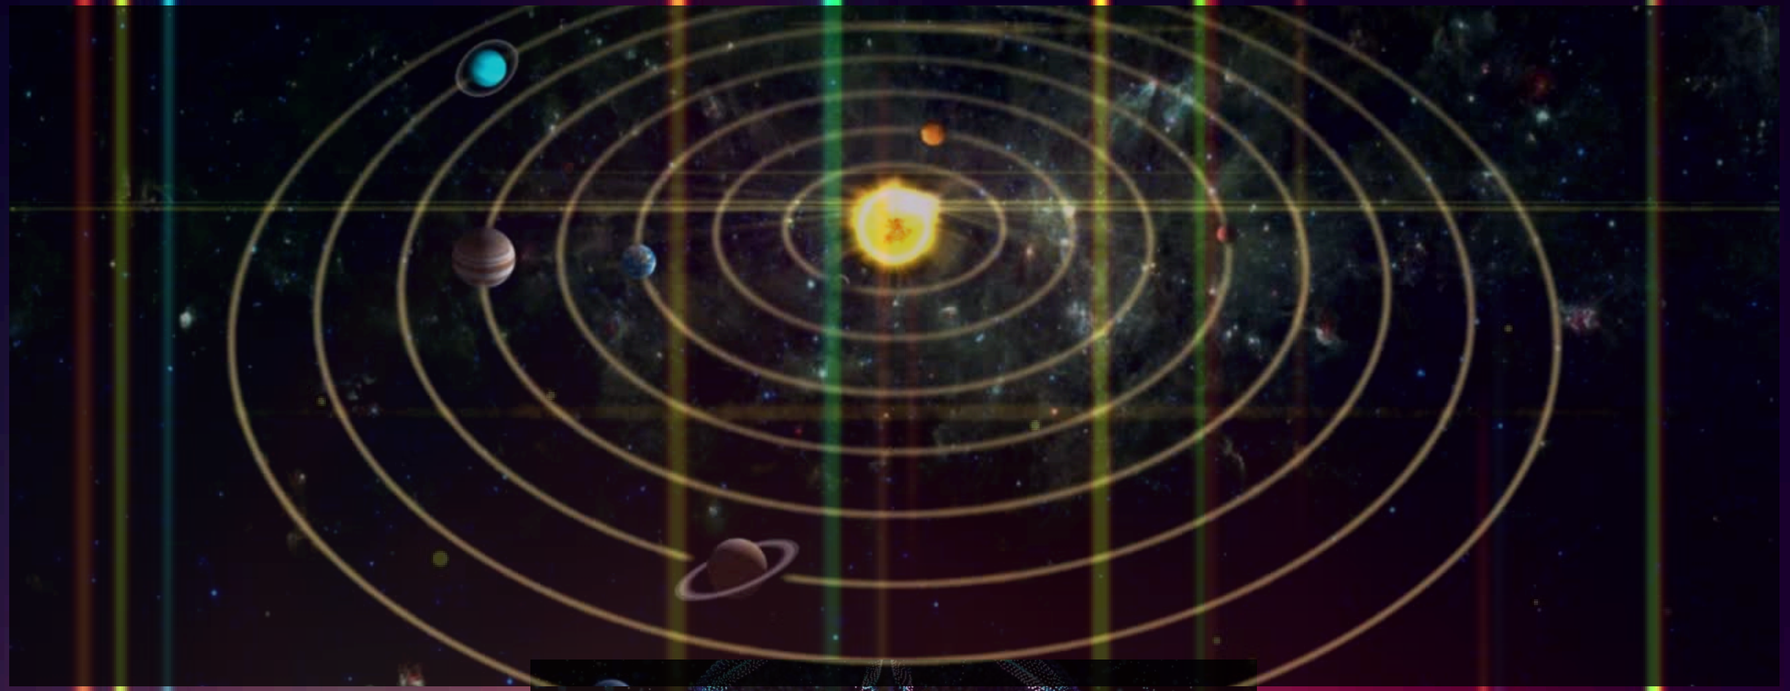

Saturn as the Planetary Dweller on the Threshold:

“From certain angles, Saturn can be regarded as the planetary Dweller on the Threshold, for humanity as a whole has to face that Dweller as well as the Angel of the Presence, and in so doing discover that both the Dweller and the Angel are that complex duality, which is the human family.”
(Esoteric Astrology, 164)

Home Alone: Saturn teaching via Capricorn & Cancer (Path of Maturity via Self-Actualized Wisdom)

Saturn (with Cancer and Capricorn) in Relation to the Path of Purification:

“Cancer—Capricorn—Saturn (which are an expression of Sirian energy) enable the aspirant to tread the Path of Purification, of Probation.
These energies focus and qualify the energy of the Great Lodge of the Most High in that distant Sun.
They pour through the Hierarchy (stages of develpment) upon the mass of men (people) and enable the unit in that mass to ‘isolate (himself/herself/themself) and turn (his/her/their) back upon the past and find (his/her/their) way on to that section of the Path wherein (he/she/they) learns to feel’.”
(Esoteric Astrology, 466)

I hope you all feel a greater understanding, appreciation and admiration for
The Planet Saturn & how the thrid Ray works through it.
I hope I have helped stimulate your mental connectivity with Saturn's energetic & archetypal teachings in your own life, within the collective, and with the Earth itself.
May we all recognize Saturnian Learning Opportunities when the arise, and meet them with less fear and more curiosity.
